

GSWC Pow Wow 2017

Course Offerings

Session 1
Woodbadge in a Nutshell	Woodbadge is an advanced leader training for scouters who want to become better leaders. This class will provide an overview of the benefits of taking Woodbadge training.
Scoutbook for Den Leaders	Learn about using Scoutbook with a focus on Den Leader features.
Blue & Gold Banquet Ideas	Get ideas for planning your Pack's Blue & Gold Banquet. Ideas for program, menus, venues, crafts, activities, etc.
Indoor/Outdoor Games	Ideas on how to lead and conduct games for your Pack both indoors and outdoors
Hiking w/Cubs	Looking for new places to take your den or pack on a hike. This class is for you to learn about places you can go and things you can do while hiking to make the event fun.
Derbies/Rockets/ Regattas (inc. out of the box)	Everyone loves derbies! There are different types of derbies such as everyone's favorite - Pinewood Derby. There are also rocket/space derbies, raingutter regattas and many other types. You will learn about each of these types of derbies and how you can plan and carry out a great event for your den or pack.
Songs/Skits & Run-Ons	Is your den responsible for a song, skit or run-on at your next pack meeting? This class will give you ideas of things that you can do that will appeal the scouts.
Cub Cooking Beginner	Opportunities to learn beginning outdoor cooking skills when planning your campout. You will learn basic menu ideas.
Pack Meetings w/Pizzazz	Want to add pizzazz to your pack meetings? Come to this class to get ideas on how to make your meetings fun and exciting and the boys wanting more.
Den Gatherings & Ceremonies	Looking for new ideas on what to do during gathering times? Do you have ceremonies you would like to do as your boys complete their achievements and recognize them? Come to this class for ideas.
Session 2
Serving Scouts w/Disabilities	Learn how to work with boys who have disabilities or different abilities so that they can get the most out of Cub Scouting.
Scoutbook for Advancement	Learn about using Scoutbook with a focus on how Advancement chairs can organize entries and submit awards to Scoutnet.
Blue & Gold Banquet Ideas	Get ideas for planning your Pack's Blue & Gold Banquet. Ideas for program, menus, venues, crafts, activities, etc.
Indoor/Outdoor Games	Ideas on how to lead and conduct games for your Pack both indoors and outdoors
Hiking w/Cubs	Looking for new places to take your den or pack on a hike. This class is for you to learn about places you can go and things you can do while hiking to make the event fun.
Derbies/Rockets/ Regattas (inc. out of the box)	Everyone loves derbies! There are different types of derbies such as everyone's favorite - Pinewood Derby. There are also rocket/space derbies, raingutter regattas and many other types. You will learn about each of these types of derbies and how you can plan and carry out a great event for your den or pack.
Songs/Skits & Run-Ons	Is your den responsible for a song, skit or run-on at your next pack meeting? This class will give you ideas of things that you can do that will appeal the scouts.
Cub Cooking Beginner	Opportunities to learn beginning outdoor cooking skills when planning your campout. You will learn basic menu ideas.
Pack Meetings w/Pizzazz	Want to add pizzazz to your pack meetings? Come to this class to get ideas on how to make your meetings fun and exciting and the boys wanting more.
Den Gatherings & Ceremonies	Looking for new ideas on what to do during gathering times? Do you have ceremonies you would like to do as your boys complete their achievements and recognize them? Come to this class for ideas.
Session 3
Introduction to the Lion Program	Our newest rank and age group. This class will be an overview of what the Lion program is and how to carry out den meetings and activities. NOTE: THIS CLASS IS NOT THE REQUIRED TRAINING FOR A PACK TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LION PILOT PROGRAM - IT IS AN OVERVIEW ONLY
Scoutbook for Administrators	Learn about using Scoutbook with a focus on Administrator responsibilities.
Blue & Gold Banquet Ideas	Get ideas for planning your Pack's Blue & Gold Banquet. Ideas for program, menus, venues, crafts, activities, etc.
Indoor/Outdoor Games	Ideas on how to lead and conduct games for your Pack both indoors and outdoors
Hiking w/Cubs	Looking for new places to take your den or pack on a hike. This class is for you to learn about places you can go and things you can do while hiking to make the event fun.

Derbies/Rockets/ Regattas (inc. out of the box)	Everyone loves derbies! There are different types of derbies such as everyone's favorite - Pinewood Derby. There are also rocket/space derbies, raingutter regattas and many other types. You will learn about each of these types of derbies and how you can plan and carry out a great event for your den or pack.
Songs/Skits & Run-Ons	Is your den responsible for a song, skit or run-on at your next pack meeting? This class will give you ideas of things that you can do that will appeal the scouts.
Cub Cooking Beginner	Opportunities to learn beginning outdoor cooking skills when planning your campout. You will learn basic menu ideas.
Webelos to Scout Transition	Learn ways that you can help make a smooth transition for the boys in your Webelos/Arrow of Light den as they transition between Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts.
Crafts for All Ranks	Looking for new craft ideas? In this class, you will learn about different kinds of crafts that are cub scout friendly and easy to do. You will make a few crafts that you can take back to your dens.
Session 4
Marketing your unit to Moms	How to get more Cubs in your Pack by marketing your unit to moms.
Scoutbook for Parents	Learn about using Scoutbook with a focus on how parents can see their scouts' records.
STEM/Nova in Cub Scouting	Overview of the NOVA/Super NOVA scout program that focuses on STEM related activities.
Camping w/Cubs	Camping basics, how to set up your site, what equipment you need to bring. Basic camping skills. NOTE: THIS COURSE IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR BALOO OR OWLS TRAINING.
Nature Activities	Are you taking the den or pack into the woods, a walk along the bosque, a visit to a park? This class will help you get ideas on activities you can do while on your outing.
Scout Skills Rope Tricks	Knot tying is always fun, this class will teach you rope tricks that you can show to the boys (and girls) in your pack that will leave them amazed and wondering how you did that.
ScoutStrong Award	Learn how your den or pack can earn the ScoutStrong award and help keep the boys healthy and fit while having fun.
Cub Cooking Intermediate	Do you know basic menus and cooking ideas? Do you want to go to the next level and find out how to cook different meals and cooking methods? Then intermediate cooking with cubs will be for you.
Orienteering/ Compass/Geocache	Learn how to teach Cub Scouts basic compass and map reading skills. Learn how to take advantage of geocaching opportunities in your area.
Crafts for All Ranks	Looking for new craft ideas? In this class, you will learn about different kinds of crafts that are cub scout friendly and easy to do. You will make a few crafts that you can take back to your dens.
Utilizing Den Chiefs	If you are thinking of having a Boy Scout serve as a Den Chief for your den, you will learn the various ways these boys can provide valuable help with your den. NOTE: THIS CLASS IS FOR ADULT LEADERS ONLY.
Session 5
New Member Coordinator	BSA has introduced a new position - New Member Coordinator. This class will provide an overview of what the position is all about and ways that you will be able to help your unit recruit new members.
Outdoor Skills for Moms	Maybe you weren't a Girl Scout. Maybe you didn't camp as a youth. Take this introductory class so you don't feel awkward when its time for family camping with your pack.
STEM/Nova in Cub Scouting	Overview of the NOVA/Super NOVA scout program that focuses on STEM related activities.
Camping w/Cubs	Camping basics, how to set up your site, what equipment you need to bring. Basic camping skills. NOTE: THIS COURSE IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR BALOO OR OWLS TRAINING.
Nature Activities	Are you taking the den or pack into the woods, a walk along the bosque, a visit to a park? This class will help you get ideas on activities you can do while on your outing.
Scout Skills Knots	Do you know your knots? Learn how to tie various knots so that you can teach the boys in your den some of the basic knots.
ScoutStrong Award	Learn how your den or pack can earn the ScoutStrong award and help keep the boys healthy and fit while having fun.
Cub Cooking Intermediate	Do you know basic menus and cooking ideas? Do you want to go to the next level and find out how to cook different meals and cooking methods? Then intermediate cooking with cubs will be for you.
Orienteering/ Compass/Geocache	Learn how to teach Cub Scouts basic compass and map reading skills. Learn how to take advantage of geocaching opportunities in your area.
Cyberchip and Internet Safety	Help your scouts learn about the Cyberchip, which is a requirement for all ranks and other forms of internet safety so that your scouts can browse the internet safely.
Youth Sessions
Den Chief Training Conducted in sessions 1-3	This course is for boys who are in Boy Scouts and are interested in becoming a Den Chief for a nearby Pack or are already a den chief and would like to gain more knowledge on how they can become a valuable resource for the Pack. NOTE: THIS CLASS IS FOR YOUTH ONLY.
Tot Lot All Day	Tot Lot - a place you can bring your kiddos who are potty trained through age 12. There will be plenty of activities to keep kids busy while mom and dad attend the Pow Wow classes. Lunch is also included! The cost of Tot Lot is $2 per child.