

VOLCANO AWARD

This award is a long time tradition in the Rio Grande District. The award is designed to be given to an adult volunteer, registered or not, who the unit thinks has contributed or performed outstanding service during the past year. This individual should not be a prior recipient of the award. The selection should be made by the Unit Committee. Leaders
A unit may award up to two per year.

The award consists of a handsome gold name tag with the recipients name and district along with the district logo
